ABOUT US:

Our mission: We connect mind and spirit so individuals, families, organizations and communities thrive

Since 1970, Samaritan Counseling Center of the Fox Valley has been serving individuals of all ages, and of all walks of life in the Fox Valley region and surrounding areas.

Samaritan Counseling Center of the Fox Valley is fully licensed with the state of Wisconsin as an outpatient mental health and AODA clinic and accredited by the Samaritan Institute (<http://www.samaritaninstitute.org>).

Our clients can expect professional, expert counseling that is cost effective.

We specialize in integrating spirituality and faith in psychotherapy according to what is relevant to each client. Samaritan Counseling Center views a person's spirit as integral to their emotional healing and growth. Spirituality in its many expressions offers hope, inspiration and direction when skillfully integrated in counseling. Samaritan is not a religious organization.
