- Provide after-hours crisis services as assigned.
- Work collaboratively with staff colleagues, consultants, and referring professionals. Actively participate in the development of the agency's referral network.
- Participate in clinical staffing and case consultations, staff retreats, and other team building activities.
- Participate in the agency's programs of education, consultation, and community relations.
- Perform other tasks as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Ability and desire to work in a cohesive and collaborative team.
- Mastery of a coherent theory and practice of therapy.
- Ability to use the language and methodology of differential diagnosis and familiarity with the contributions of various diagnostic tests.
- Ability to relate the contributions of various disciplines to the therapeutic task and to make appropriate use of inter-professional collaboration.
- Ability to integrate spiritual beliefs and practices with the therapeutic process.
- Must be able to work effectively with religious leaders, congregations, and other community sponsors and resource persons.
- Understanding of the dynamics of spiritual experiences and the implications for psychotherapy.
- Ability and willingness to develop and cultivate his/her own caseload by representing the agency in the community and relating to referral sources.
- Ability to establish and maintain appropriate personal and professional relationships and boundaries both within and outside the agency.
- An appreciation of the integration of spirituality and faith in relationships with colleagues and clients.

Requirements

- Graduation from an accredited or state-approved program with a master's or doctoral degree in counseling, clinical psychology, or social work.
- Current licensure in good standing in Wisconsin as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Licensed Professional Counselor, or Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist.
